RIGHT OF REVOCATION

You have the right to revoke this contract within 14 (fourteen) days without providing any reasons. The revocation period is 14 (fourteen) days from the day the contract was concluded.

To exercise your right of revocation, you must inform:

Hazem Adnan Alkhani

Email: Hazem007@msn.com

of your decision to revoke this contract through a clear statement via email. You may use the attached sample revocation form, but it is not mandatory. To meet the revocation deadline, it is sufficient for you to send the notice of exercising the right of revocation before the revocation period expires.

CONSEQUENCES OF REVOCATION

If you revoke this contract, we will refund all payments received from you, including delivery costs (except for any additional costs resulting from your choice of a delivery method other than the cheapest standard delivery offered by us) without undue delay and no later than 14 (fourteen) days from the day we receive your revocation notice.

We will use the same payment method for this refund as you used in the original transaction unless expressly agreed otherwise; in no case will you be charged fees for this refund.

You must return or hand over the goods to us without delay and in any case no later than 14 (fourteen) days from the day you notify us of the revocation of this contract. The deadline is met if you send the goods before the 14-day period expires.

We will bear the cost of returning the goods. You are only liable for any loss of value of the goods if this loss of value results from handling beyond what is necessary to check their condition, properties, and functionality.

If you request the services to begin during the revocation period, you must pay us an appropriate amount corresponding to the portion of services already provided up to the point you notify us of exercising your right of revocation in relation to this contract, compared to the total scope of services specified in the contract.

The right of revocation ends for a service contract if the contractor has fully performed the services and has only begun performing the services after the customer has given their express consent and acknowledged that they lose their right of revocation upon full performance of the contract by the contractor.

"I expressly request and agree that the requested service may begin before the end of the revocation period, and I understand that this means my right of revocation will expire." (Explicitly written in the contract)

The services provided by the contractor are considered service contracts and only pertain to service matters. For service contracts, the right of revocation expires early if the contractor begins providing services according to the customer's express consent before the revocation period expires.
